4. Briefly, the severe demage found on delivery is a result of open storage over a long period in the damp and rainy climates. Photographs (Attachment D) illustrate the condition of the effects upon opening. A letter official, dated 26 May 1955, attempts to account for the damage and requests benevolence for a regrettable incident. Claimant believes any legal action against officials would surely result in embarrassment to the Agency, and compromise

he was assigned. Since he is thus deprived of legal recourse, claimant states the Agency should assume liability. The Chief, EE Division, concurs that these security and cover considerations preclude claimant's legal recourse against officials.

- 5. Attachment E pertains to unsuccessful insurance correspondence for recovery of the loss. Insurance coverage was limited to marine perils at sea and did not include loss by rain water damage. Mr. recommend25X1A9a that Agency employees, departing for foreign assignments, be thoroughly briefed on the value of adequate insurance coverage.
- and deliberation of all evidence presented, unanimously recommended that the claim be approved, subject to application of the depreciation schedule by the Office of the Comptroller. This recommendation is based solely on the representation made by the operating division and by the claimant that security and cover considerations preclude a claim against the consideration proclude a claim against the comptroller of ficals re25×1A6a sponsible for the damage. The amount allowed by the Office of Comptroller is computed in the following manner:

| • | CLAIMED | VITONED |
